

The City of Madras has proposed changes to City Code regarding manufactured home and RV parks. The Planning Commission is currently reviewing these changes and City Council will make a decision in spring 2021.