V. UPDATES

A. Willow Creek clean up.

Michele Quinn told the Committee that staff is working with Department of Corrections (DOC) to have an inmate crew clear some of the overgrown brush out of Willow Creek. We will need to wait until the creek dries up the melting snow has the creek running. We are hoping sometime in April.

B. Yard Beautification

Cindy Stanfield said there is some interest from the Garden Club they will be adding window boxes to the fair this year. This might be a good way to get things started.

C. Project updates

Jeff Hurd gave updates on the following projects:

- Airport Projects
- Golf Course Cart Path
- Willowbrook Park – grass and trees
- Sagebrook subdivision phase 2
- Demers Pump Station
- Culver Hwy Sewer/ Easement
- Warming Shelter paving
- Koyoda Sewer

VI. Additional Discussion

- Louise Muir potholes in front of the Post Office
- Gary Walker mentioned the graffiti.
Chris Funk mentioned to the Committee about removing the building at the TS&S lot known as the Graffiti Building. This would create a usable parking area.

A motion was made by Gary Walker; seconded by Patricia Spencer; to recommend to Council the removal of the Graffiti Building on the TS&S lot, Motion passed unanimously.
